

Tutor and Board member : Frank Robertson
Remit : Surety
Tutor since : 2005

General information:

Frank grew up in the upper Midwest part of the US. He studied economics and law. He started his career as a surety underwriter. After a series of field management positions at Chubb Surety, he was promoted to a Home Office position overseeing some portion of their US business and all of their business outside the US. Over the next several years, he reorganized his US business units and started building up a representative business in Europe, Latin America and Asia - Pacific. Eventually he was promoted again to be Deputy Manager of all of Chubb Surety, where he took additional reinsurance and technology responsibilities, in addition to his underwriting management and profit responsibilities. He also became more active in several US and international surety associations.

Frank has been a tutor in Surety with William Wesseling since 2005.
