

Board member : Peter Evola
Remit : Credit Insurance
Board member since : 1-9-2018

General information:

Although having only worked in the industry since 2011, Peter has picked up a wealth of experience. Having started work in London as an underwriting specialist, in 2015 Peter moved to a role in Euler's Group function in Paris as an executive to the board, focusing particularly on the creation and implementation of technical pricing tools and general global underwriting strategy. Moving back to London with Euler in 2018, Peter has taken up the role Regional Head of Commercial Underwriting, making him responsible for the underwriting teams of 15 European markets. In addition, Peter has strong experience with the coming Digital evolution of the Trade credit Industry and how these changes are impacting what we do today and what we will likely be doing tomorrow.
