

Tutor : Julie Roper
Remit : Credit Insurance
Tutor since : 2018

General information:

Julie is British and has a degree in Banking and International Finance from City University in London. She has worked in credit insurance since 1991, beginning as a graduate trainee with Trade Indemnity (now Euler Hermes UK). She has held a number of different positions at the company, from risk underwriting to new business and account management. Prior to moving into her current training role, Julie was responsible for some of Euler Hermes' largest clients. For the last 14 years she has been running training courses for staff and brokers, as well as being involved in product development. Her area of expertise is her technical knowledge of policy contracts. Julie started as a trainer with Stecis in 2018 and works together with Rob Klouth on the Basic Credit Insurance Course.
