

Tutor : William Wesseling
Subject : Surety
Tutor since : 2005

General information

William obtained his Law degree at the University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands.

He started his career at Graydon in Amsterdam. In the Legal Department, his area of attention was debt collection and credit information.

In 1987, he joined N.V. Nationale Borg-Maatschappij (at that time a listed company and later part of ING Group, banking and insurance). Nationale Borg is an Amsterdam based surety company. He held various management positions at the Bond Department and the Risk Management Department.

In 2006, he went over to Euler Hermes Interborg (later named Euler Hermes Bonding) where he became Deputy Director, Risk Director and Manager Bonding.

He was a Member and Chairman of the Technical Sub-Committee Surety at ICISA and a Member of the Group Risk Management Committee of ING.

Since 2005, he is a tutor at Stecis for Surety.